- a) These terms and conditions apply to all products sold by Teldor Cables & Systems Ltd., an Israeli corporation ("Teldor"), to the Buyer.
- b) Any addition, deletion or alternation proposed by the Buyer but not expressly agreed and confirmed in writing by the Buyer, shall not bind the parties and shall not constitute part of the contract.

2) Delivery

- a) Teldor shall use reasonable efforts to adhere to the stated delivery date, but Teldor shall not be liable for any loss resulting from any delay in delivery, nor shall the Buyer be entitled to cancel the contract by reason only of Teldor's failure to deliver at the stated time.
- b) The products shall be delivered in accordance with the provisions of the specific INCOTERMS 2010 specified.
- c) Where products are delivered in installments, each installment shall be deemed a separate sale. Default of Teldor in respect of any one or more installments shall not entitle the Buyer to repudiate the contract with regard to any other installments.
- d) If the Buyer requests to delay the delivery date beyond the stated delivery date in the order, such delay shall be subject to the Teldor's prior written consent, which may be granted or withheld at the Teldor's sole discretion. In the event that Teldor agrees to such delay, the Buyer shall be liable for any additional costs incurred as a result, including but not limited to storage, insurance, and handling fees. The Buyer shall pay such additional costs in accordance with the payment terms specified by Teldor.

3) Risk and Title

- a) Risk or loss or damage to and in the products, including associated risk of hazard, shall pass to the Buyer upon delivery.
- b) The products shall remain the property of Teldor unless and until Teldor receives all payments due for the products. Until payment is made in full, the Buyer shall not remove or obscure any label or marking which may allow the products to be identified.
- c) When the products are incorporated into other products by the Buyer or otherwise, title to such other products shall vest in Teldor until payment in full as aforesaid. The Buyer shall be entitled to sell such other product to a third party before the full payment of the other product, provided that all sums received by the Buyer with respect to the sale of such other product that are sufficient to cover the full payment for Teldor's product, be held in trust for the benefit of Teldor in a separate bank account until payment in full for the other products.

4) Price and Payment

- a) The purchase price to be paid for the products and the terms of payment shall be as agreed in writing between Buyer and Teldor. Teldor may at any time require the Buyer to provide security satisfactory to Teldor.
- b) Unless otherwise agreed in writing by Teldor, prices are exclusive of VAT, duties, taxes, levies, imposts, deposits or surcharges related to the importation or otherwise, which shall be paid by the Buyer.
- c) The Buyer may not, for any reason whatsoever, withhold any payment or claim any right of deduction or set-off against any payment payable under the contract.
- d) If the Buyer is in default in respect of the payment of any sum payable under the contract, then without prejudice to Teldor's other rights and remedies, the Buyer shall pay Teldor cumulative interest on all overdue sums at the rate of 5% above the London Inter Bank Rate for the currency of the contract, as certified by Teldor's bankers.

5) Claims, Warranty and Limited Liability

a) The Buyer must examine the applicable products immediately upon receipt of shipment. Claims for partial or total non-delivery due to fault of Teldor must be made to Teldor within 10 days of receipt of shipment. In such situations, Teldor shall have the right to examine the applicable products in their original form and the shipping records at the Buyer's location. Failure to make a claim within said 10 days shall mean the products are deemed delivered in accurate numbers and the full invoice shall be payable.

b) Additionally, in the event of any such action, Teldor shall be entitled to require prepayment and such security, as it may deem necessary as a condition to resuming delivery under this or any other contract with the Buyer.

7) Intellectual Property

a) The Buyer acknowledges Teldor's sole ownership of all present and future right, title and interest to any and all trademarks and trade names, homologations, product registrations, patents, all applications relating to any of the know-how and other intellectual property relating in any way to the TELDOR trade name or products. 8) Force Majeure

Teldor shall not be liable for any delay or failure in the performance of its obligations, when such delay or failure results in whole or in part from shortages or disruption in the supply of materials from normal sources, shortage of means of transport, floods, fire, act of God, war, riot, civil insurrection, strikes, lock-outs, industrial unrest, inclement weather, acts of civil or military authorities, or circumstances beyond Teldor's reasonable control or force majeure.
